October 16, 2019

Meeting began at 3:03 p.m.

Present: Mayor Webster, Matt Clayton, Greg Karle, Carolyn Ghantous, Julie Matheny, Mike Mathis

Minutes of the September 18, 2019 meeting were accepted as submitted.

OLD BUSINESS

Euchre Tournament

The question was raised if there was any "blowback" in regards to the tournament being cancelled. There was none.

Christmas Program – Adopt a Family

Chief Mathis gave a report for Jim Beckman regarding the program. GE is offering to help Heritage Hill with coats. Jim has reached out to 45 people and has heard back from about half of them.

Dates were set for different portions of the Christmas program. Food bins will begin to be placed at various businesses starting on November 8th. All bins will be returned by December 6th. Humana volunteers will be at the Municipal Building starting on December 9th to begin sorting the food for families. Matt Clayton will begin contacting companies for placement of bins. Matt also stated he would apply for a community grant through Meijer Grocery Stores to cover some of the cost of hams for the Adopt A Family Program.

Present drop off will occur on Friday, December 13th

Pick up of presents will be on Thursday, December 19th with Friday, December 20th as a "backup" day for any individuals that were unable to pick up on Thursday. Chief Mathis stated that if anyone had any further questions, Jim Beckman's number is (513) 346-5539.

Chief Mathis stated that Jim Beckman will call Carolyn and Susan Wyder regarding coats. Mayor Webster suggested S.O.S. contribute $500 to assist with purchase of coats and proceed as needed from there. Princeton Closet will also be contacted for assistance with coats.
